

MILWAUKEE FRIENDS MEETING

Eleanor Backus Peace Award

The Eleanor Backus Peace Award is given in honor of Eleanor Backus (1907-1999), a longtime member of the Religious Society of Friends (Quakers). Eleanor was a peace educator and social justice advocate all her life, both locally and internationally. A mother of six, Eleanor believed it was "wrong to bring children into the world and do nothing about the world they are inheriting."

You are eligible for this up to $500 award if both of these apply:

1. You are a high school junior or senior when you apply, AND
2. You can provide evidence of leadership and/or personal initiative individually or with an organization (including volunteer or paid work) relating to peace, conflict resolution, or social justice including environmental issues.

Visit our website at www.milwaukeequakers.org and read about the award. Then fill out the online form no later than midnight, Sunday November 7, 2021. No transcripts, please.

Questions about the award or the application process may be directed to backuspeaceaward@milwaukeequakers.org.

Completed applications may be sent by postal service or email:

Eleanor Backus Peace Award
Milwaukee Friends Meeting
3224 N. Gordon Place
Milwaukee, WI 53212

Deadline:
Midnight, Sunday,
November 7, 2021

backuspeaceaward@milwaukeequakers.org