

ARE YOU CALLED TO SHARE — A MESSAGE — DURING WORSHIP?

These are guidelines to assist you. As always, the movement of the Spirit is the ultimate authority.

The words arising are not simply nice words or a topic in which you have a personal interest. Rather, you feel compelled to explore them further. True vocal ministry should invite listeners closer to the heart of the Divine. We want to speak to that which is eternal, resonates in the soul, stirs to action, and leads to spiritual change.

To go deeper on this topic, read “On Vocal Ministry” by J. Brent Bill and Barry Crossno, Pendle Hill Pamphlet 460, Published Nov/Dec 2019. Now available through QuakerBooks of FGC and Pendle Hill.
